"In future we'll hold onto the cards and will take note of each monthly winner. We will also pair people off within the teams of four, to play against each other to ensure there's competition within the teams.

The event after this is planned for the 25th venue tbc – please let me know your interest matthew.gallagher@panalpina.com "

And we're off – Bye Bye Hedges

"Most of you know that I am heading back to London to the land of no cabs and early hours closing down the pub, which may be a good thing.

Not too sure how long I will be gone for, but am having a few drinks at O'Bama's on Saturday 27th June at 8:30pm.

Come down if you are free, all are invited. There will be a few free beverages for the early birds."

Alan Power Anniversary Games – July 18th

Message from Blathnaid –

“As you know, the first Anniversary of Alan's passing is coming up in a few weeks.

To mark the anniversary and to honour and remember Alan, we will be holding a Sports Day at the SCC grounds at Dempsey on Saturday July 18th.

Each of the clubs that Alan was a part of during his time here in Singapore will be involved and the day will be a celebration of sports and AP's memory.

The plan is to have a Soccer competition between Gaelic FC and other clubs AP was part of or competed against.

There will also be a mixed Gaelic Blitz competition where Cork will be pitting their might and wits against the rest of us. Ladies and Mens teams will be mixed for this one and the Wombats will be joining us also.

Food & Drinks will be available pitch-side and of course, there will be pints to be had in Muddies that night.

The details of both the Soccer and Gaelic competitions are being worked out at the moment and we will be keeping you all posted on that. Keep an eye on the newsletter for updates.

In the meantime though, please advise if you are available to play in the Gaelic Blitz. Let myself (blathnaid.macnamara@barcap.com), Micheal (micheal.jbsmith@gmail.com) or Claire (claire_dinsmore@hotmail.com) know so they can start putting the teams together.

Thanks to all who are helping to organise this day. We think AP would approve!

Thanks
Bla”

A heads-up from Ruairi

“For anyone who wants to watch the games from home on the Thursday following the games weekend rte.ie has The Sunday Game programme available on the website

http://www.rte.ie/sport/gaa/championship/mediaplayer.html?programmes_thesundaygame

For example, from yesterday you can watch the Kilkenny v Galway hurling and Derry v Tyrone football games from last weekend.

The live games had been available on www.setanta-i.com however until Setanta Ireland and international rights are sorted it won't be available.”

Lastly, a big thank you to the ever delightful Lorraine Fagan for her patience and understanding week in week out when I dump her for lunch to do up the Newsletter. O How she suffers the loss of my company and yet, you'd never hear a word of comment from her, no negativity at all. She is a very model of silent suffering, right Niall?

Me and my hangover are going to have a lie down on the couch. Have a great weekend, best of luck to Janet & come back to us soon.

BowLAH

P.s. Ruairi, I'm not in for training this week either. My Social Calendar is out of control.
