SGL Weekly Newsletter – 31st July 2009

Afternoon people!

Sadly, my “bet my way to riches” plan is clearly not quite perfected yet, as I am still working which would clearly not be the case if last Friday had gone as planned.

From what I hear, congratulations are in order for Darragh L, who, by all accounts out-ran everybody at fitness training on Tuesday. Anyone else think he might be trying prove (...or disprove...!) something?!! Heck Darragh, we won't forget your moment of fame that easily!

Short and sweet this week...

Bogeying in Batam – golf society update!

Greeting fellow swingers! July event held at Palm Springs was the first where we announced the prize for the monthly winner for best score. The winner proudly gets to wear, THE GOLDEN JACKET, this is the best sought prize after the Augusta Green Jacket and Willy Wonka's golden ticket. The first event was won by Stewart who stopped off from India on his way to Hong Kong to storm the course with 38 points! The jacket will continually be passed onto monthly winner. Thanks again for all that attended, 18 players in all – so please continue to keep the numbers up! The next event is penciled for the 22nd August at Batam Hills. Please confirm your attendance asap to matthew.gallagher@panalpina.com

Toucan Cup: T – 8 days!!

Don't worry about packing girls. Seriously, you can get everything in vending machines... cameras, underwear, beer... probably even football kits...
