SGL Weekly Newsletter – 4th Sept 2009

T – 43 days!! I've booked my flights – the countdown is officially on!!

We've lots planned to keep you busy between now and then... read on...

Actually, before I go any further, a big good bye and good luck to Joe Lyons. What will we do without you?! Luckily our favourite pin-up boy is still around to prevent the newsletters from becoming too boring and politically correct! And... speaking of Joe and Darragh – still no sign of the contribution to the newsletter that they begged to be allowed write... well, boys??? Maybe we are just not ready for their unparalleled wit...

Orang Eire tour to Singvegas!

SGL will welcome the Ladies, Men & Kids from our neighbours in KL on September 12th & 13th 2009. This will be our fourth meeting of the year with the KL Challenge in Feb, OE's tour to Singapore in April and the SE Asian Games already behind us. KL will be bringing 1 mens and 1 ladies team. The games will be held at Tanglin Trust School from 2pm to 6pm on Saturday for the Adults and the kids games will be held at Turf City on Sunday morning at 09:30am.

On Sat night we will hold our first official social at Muddy Murphy's along with the Orang Eire gang. There will be food served, live music and plenty of craic - so make sure you get down there and also ensure that you use your cards.

Pitches (Senior Matches):

Tanglin Trust School Pitch.

Located at Jalan Hang Jebat, which is just off the AYE at Portsdown Flyover.

Juveniles:

First Aid

First Aiders – slight change in organisation... the coaches will be coordinating the first aid cover from now on. There are only a few weeks left in the season, so please try to make as many as possible of the sessions to which you are assigned. If you're not available, please find a replacement and tell the coach as early as possible.

ACB Competition – Name the Mascot...

Congrats to Hugh Smiddy for winning the competition with his suggestion, Abú, which means Hooray in Irish!!

And finally...

Happy birthday to Peter, Keriann and Tess!

Enjoy the weekend kids!
